VOLUME XII.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1893

NUMBER 299.

THE RESULT

Of Tuesday's Battle of the Ballots.
The Republicans Elect the Senator,

Democrats the Representative--In the Municipal Contest There Were Several Surprises.

Cox Chosen Mayor, Broese Clerk,
Wadsworth Police Judge, Ort
Chief of Police.

OTHER SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES.

Tuesday's battle of the ballots passed off very quietly in this city and county.
Not a single disturbance has been reported.

In the country precincts the Democrats did not poll their full strength, and as a result Hon. A. P. Gooding is defeated for State Senator. He carries this county by a comfortable majority, but Judge Pugh, Republican nominee, swept the "State of Lewis," carrying that county by about 1,000. This is more than the Republicans themselves expected in Lewis, and elects Pugh by several hundred majority. The big vote polled by Pugh in Lewis shows that the Republicans made their fight in that county.

Mr. Walter Matthews wins the race for Representative, defeating Captain M. C.
Hutchins. His majority, however, is not as large as it ought to be. Stay-at-home Democrats are largely to blame for this.

The point made by the Republicans against Gooding and Matthews that they were opposed to public schools, (although not true) cut quite a figure in the race.
The statement that they had voted against the 15-cent special school tax was used against them for all it was worth, and the fact that their district had previously voted a 25-cent tax for public school purposes, and was one of the first districts to have a ten-months school, was not brought out as it should have been.

There were several lively contests over the municipal offices in this city, and there were a number of surprises in the result. The voting was rather slow work, owing to the fact that so many names had to be marked. A great many of the voters had to be assisted in marking their ballots. In the Second ward, there were fifteen men in line when the polls closed. Thirteen of these were negroes, who had been holding back. It is said they wanted $10 each for their votes.

The counting of the ballots was also a slow process. In the Fifth ward it was nearly 12 o'clock before the count was completed, and the Third was not much ahead of the Fifth in announcing the result.

William H. Cox was elected Mayor, over John T. Martin. Charles E. Broese defeated M. A. O'Hare for Clerk, and A.
A. Wadsworth was chosen Police Judge, over E. E. Pearce, Jr., 'Squire Grant and Thomas A. Respass. In the contest for Chief of Police, D. P. Ort defeats Captain E. W. Fitzgerald and James W. Fitzgerald was chosen Treasurer, over H.
Ficklin. Assessor C. D. Sheppard was re-elected, defeating John B. Orr and Samuel O. Porter. The result for School Trustees and Councilmen is given below.

Following are the returns as far as received:

STEAMER BURNED.

Eighteen Persons Lose Their Lives on Lake Nipissing.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—The burning of the steamer Fraser yesterday on Lake Nipissing, eighteen persons lost their lives. The disaster occurred near Goose island, and in spite of the most strenuous efforts to save life the above number perished.

Lake Nipissing is situated northeast of Lake Huron in Ontario, nearly midway between it and the Ottawa river, and it is supposed that the steamer was in regular service on the lake. Only the most meager particulars are obtainable.

EARTHQUAKES IN MEXICO.

Houses Shaken Down and Several People Injured.

GUADALAJARA, Mex., Nov. 8.—Severe earthquake shocks have occurred here during the past 10 days, and there is much excitement among the people.
The Colima volcano is in a violent state of eruption, and the people living in the valley at the base of the mountain have left their homes in search of a place of safety.

At the town of Americas the first severe shock of earthquake did great damage to property, and several persons were wounded by falling houses.
The first disturbance was felt in the states of Oaxaca, Puebla, Guerrero, Morelos Jalisco.

He Was a Crank.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—G. J. Reiner alias J. G. Grumberg, who suicided in Chicago at the Southern hotel yesterday, proves to be the erratic young foreigner who some weeks ago because the postoffice authorities here would not deliver valuable mail to him without identification, put a match to them while examining them at the postoffice and so destroyed some $3,000 worth of checks, drafts, etc.

Two Rock Miners Instantly Killed.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 8.—Patrick Mc-Laughlin and David Jenkins, two rock miners, employed in the Lansford colliery, were instantly killed yesterday by a premature explosion. They had prepared a blast, and the fuse, burning slowly, they supposed that it had gone out. Just as they reached the place the blast went off, and the men were torn and mangled in a horrible manner.

Death of General Bridge.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—General James Bridge died here yesterday. He was born in Dresden, Me., June 1, 1809.
John Bridge, the direct ancestor of General Bridge, was supervisor of the first public school in the colony, which was afterward named Cambridge. He was the leading spirit in the establishment of Harvard university in pursuance of bequests of John Harvard.

Citizen Shot by a Policeman.

LANSINGBURG, N. Y., Nov. 8.—A riot occurred here last night between the police and citizens. The police seized the ballot-boxes in three districts and started for the police station. A party of citizens followed and attempted to take the boxes from them. In the melee a policeman shot Josiah E. West, a prominent citizen, in the head.

Whole Family Killed.

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 8.—Richard Savage of New York shot and killed his 5-year-old son and his wife, and then pointing the revolver at his own head sent a bullet through it. The child died instantly. Mrs. Savage lived for an hour without gaining consciousness and the murderer died a few hours later.

Duel in a Saloon.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 8.—A duel was fought last night in a saloon at Colville by two miners named McDonald and Harrington. Eight shots were exchanged, and McDonald received a fatal wound. Harrington was seriously hurt. The duel was the result of an old feud.

Had Counterfeit Money.

AKRON, O., Nov. 8.—Richard A.
Hulett was arrested here yesterday by United States officers. He had over 300 counterfeit dollars in his possession.
He says he procured them in New York.

Sent Up For Thirteen Years.

CIRCLEVILLE, O., Nov. 8.—Judge Abernathy sentenced William Strong, convicted of manslaughter, to 13 years at hard labor in the penitentiary.

Oleo Factory Burned.

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—Fick & Company's weaving mills and Lesser Tsadt's oleomargarine factory were burned in Elberfeld. Loss, 1,500,000 marks.

RICHMOND, Ky., Nov. 8.—James Burgess and James Hill fought at Valley View over the renewal of an old grudge. Burgess cut Hill about the head and neck in a frightful manner.
He sliced Hill's nose off. Hill may not recover.

The Perfect Place to Dwell in.

We had always been hunting for it.
We had always felt sure that somewhere, some day, we should find the perfect place which was to combine the charm of the middle ages with the comfort of the nineteenth century—the Albert Durer town which could be reached in a railway train, with medieval streets through which the dinner bell would make a pleasant sound, where there would be plenty of picturesque dirt in other people's houses, plenty of fresh water and clean rooms in our own hotel.
Perhaps this is a bourgeois idea. But then that is our affair.

Eight years of wandering had brought us no closer to our undiscovered country. When, last summer, as we were traveling in the mountains—but not why should we tell the name? Why break the serenity of its hilly streets with the rush of personally conducted parties or of easel laden artists? Why turn it into another Barbizon or La-guerre's, another Chester or Nuremberg? Besides, we have exploited so many places in our day; we have, in our recklessness, presented the painter, the illustrator, the magazine writer with more motives than they can exhaust in a generation; we have, by our enterprise, developed the cycling trade to an incalculable extent, and by our praise made the fortune of half the hotel keepers in Provence. And the result for us?
Not a cycle manufacturer would give us a machine if we asked for it, not a landlord would throw us a crust were we starving, not an art student would find a spare moment to thank us. No; the name of the most picturesque place in the world we shall keep to ourselves. It is foolish deliberately to court the fate of Columbus or Stanley.—Mr. and Mrs.
Pennell in Century.

The Limits of Arbitration.

With international arbitration we confess to having comparatively little sympathy. If nations mean to fight, nothing will prevent their so doing, and agreements to arbitrate will be of very little service. The suggestion of an agreement between England and the United States to establish a permanent machinery for regulating their disputes is, however, quite different. Nations in whom the same racial characteristics are to be found, who are influenced by the same ideas, who talk the same language, read the same books and possess the same political traditions, are capable of making an agreement to settle disputes by arbitration a reality.

Again, an agreement not to fight till the question in dispute has been referred to a body exercising the functions of a court of law is a step in the direction of that alliance between the United States and England which we trust and believe, is the destiny of the two countries.
If we begin by an acknowledgment that we are not in the position of foreign powers—i. e., liable to war at any moment—we may soon rise to a definite race alliance, and lastly to that declaration of a common citizenship which would prevent any Englishman from being an alien in America or any American being an alien in England and would heal the breach in the unity of the race caused by the folly of George III and his ministers.
—London Spectator.

Hideous Advertisements.

It is said that a salmon, when quite devoid of appetite, may be worried into taking a fly, if only flies be presented to him with irritating pertinacity. "Hang it!" he exclaims, "I cannot be troubled with this Jock Scott any longer!"—he makes an irritable snap at it and is lost.

Possibly in the same way persons are driven nearly wild by seeing this or that commodity thrust on their notice in railway stations, in trains, in the streets, in the fields, on the top of Ben Macdhui.
Then they may purchase a sample in despair, may like it and go on using it.
This may be the theory of frantic and hideous advertisements, but on the whole it might seem more likely to work its own destruction. "Whatever I buy I will not buy that," one can conceive the citizen remarking and looking out for a less obtrusive article. But if advertising did not pay people would not advertise.—London Saturday Review.

Booth's Fondness For Waffles.

Edwin Booth had a curious passion for waffles. During his last engagement in Boston he ate one evening 25 waffles at a sitting, and hideous indigestion ensued—so bad, in fact, that the great tragedian could not play that evening, and a big house that had assembled to witness his "Shylock" was forced to go home unsatisfied.—Stage-land.

IN NICHOLAS.

Nicholas County elected Democratic ticket by about usual majorities. Martin for Senator, Wheeler for Representative, Rossell for School Superintendent. Holliday Stitt was elected Police Judge of Carlisle; Thomas P. Tureman Mayor, and Council in favor of license.

THE RESULT IN LEWIS.

Judge Pugh carried Lewis County by 1,000 majority, and Dr. Bowman for Representative defeats Judge Halbert by about 700.

The "Spider and Fly" To-night.

M. B. Leavitt's new spectacular production will be presented at the opera house to-night with the company of fifty people who were selected for the World's Fair engagement at Chicago, where this magnificent spectacle was produced for one hundred nights to crowded houses. Many novelties have been added. Notable features in the production are the Columbian Ballet of sixteen beautiful English dancers from the Alhambra, London, headed by Mlle.
Vercelli, premiere danseuse, and Mlle.
De Filippi, danseuse from the principal European theaters; the famous French dancers, Mlle. Marie Nordier, Nanette Miner, Frances Martine, Nadine Balfour, from the Folies Bergere, Paris, said to be the most daring, unique and bewildering of terpsichorean artists. A grand transformation scene illustrating American historical events from 1492 to 1893 is said to be a masterpiece of stage mechanism and scenic art. Tickets 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Seats at Nelson's hat store.

Cut Her Throat.

A special from Paris says: "Miss Maggie Columbia, daughter of John Columbia, of the Millersburg precinct, attempted suicide Sunday night by cutting her throat with a razor. She made two ugly gashes across it but it is thought she will recover. Miss Columbia will give no explanation of her conduct.

"Her father states that she received a letter from Mason County Saturday from a man with whom he did not wish her to correspond. He spoke to her about it, but not harshly. She retired to her room and refused to come out. Sunday afternoon they heard her fall upon the floor and give a half smothered scream. Going to her apartments they found her lying in a pool of blood."

MRS. ANN SHACKLEFORD

Passes Away at Lexington—A Good Christian Woman Called Home.

Mrs. Ann Shackelford, whose critical illness was mentioned some days ago, passed away last night at the home of her son, Prof. John Shackelford of Lexington. A telegram to Dr. Phister this morning brought the sad news.

Deceased was about eighty years of age and was probably the oldest native born citizen of Maysville. Her maiden name was Chambers, she being a member of one of the pioneer families of this section. She was universally esteemed and was a most estimable Christian woman.

Her husband, Dr. Jno. Shackelford, died some years ago. Several children, among them Dr. James Shackelford and Mr. William Shackelford of this city, survive her.

The remains will be brought here on the morning train to-morrow (Thursday) and taken direct from the depot to the Maysville Cemetery for interment. Services will be conducted at the grave.

"Hold the Fort."

Thomas B. Kelly, a native of Aberdeen, died at DuQuoin, Ill., recently. Kelley was with Gen. Sherman in his famous march to the sea, and was the officer who signaled from Kennesaw Mountain that famous message, "Hold the Fort, For I Am Coming," a sentence made immortal in song by P. P. Bliss, the song writer, who perished in the Ashtabula wreck. Sherman was on Kennesaw when General Corse, in charge of the Federal commissary stores, was at Altoona, fortified, but in a dangerous place. Even after Kelley had signaled the historic message, no answer could be gotten from Corse. That he had received the message was evident by the way his men fought. Later on, when the smoke cleared away, Corse was able to signal back to old Tecumseh: "I'm minus one ear and a cheek bone, but am able to whip all yet."

A Child Enjoys

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle.

A Parsee's Benefactions.

It was Sir Jamesjee Jeejeebhoy who first made the Parsee name famous in Europe for philanthropy more than a generation ago. His younger contemporary, Sir Cowasjee Jehanghir, carried on the tradition, but both have been eclipsed by the present head of the Parsee community at Bombay, Sir Dinshaw Manockjee Petit. The total of that gentleman's benefactions reaches an enormous sum, probably not much less than 500,000 sterling, and the Bombay papers inform us that he recently gave a fresh proof of his philanthropy on the occasion of three of his grandchildren being invested with the sacred thread—a ceremony which corresponds to our baptism or confirmation.

At this ceremony he had the co-operation of Bal Dinbai, the widow of his brother, Mr. Nusserwanjee Petit, who has herself distributed in charity since her husband's death a year ago nearly £80,000 of English money. The members of the Petit family, in honor of this special event, gave nearly £5,000 for beneficent objects, among which the formation of classes for promoting drawing and cooking among the Parsees figures most prominently.—London Globe.

Heating Houses by Natural Water.

About a mile from the city of Boise great volumes of hot water gush out of several deep artesian wells. The water possesses no medicinal value, and heretofore has been used only for bathing.
Now a 6-inch pipe will be laid from the springs into the city, and the hot water will be conducted into nearly every business block and residence. The cost of heating with hot water, it is estimated, will be 50 per cent less
